

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

I am writing to voice my concerns about the FCC's proposal to relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

Not only do I feel this might be a safety problem, I do not want to be sitting by another passenger who chats, chats, chats on his/her cell phone the entire trip. The majority of cell phone users talk loudly to ensure they are heard. If my trip is for pleasure, I would like a nice relaxed atmosphere; if it is a business trip, I am usually finishing or reviewing reports that will be used within the next few hours.

Cell phone use could also enable terrorists to coordinate a plan of action more effectively.

Please leave the current rules in effect.

Sincerely,

Nita Hickman
